A: You should first read the FAQ. It will give you an answer to nearly all your questions. For your question "How to download GTA4 for PC?": Go to this page (Official Page). Here you see the list of GTA games available for download. You must have an account, but it's free. Click on the game you want to download. After getting the link, go to the download page. Click "Direct link" and put in the link you got from your email. (You will need to use the link you get after clicking the link.) You can now download a.zip archive with the game. A: If you're using Mac OSX, here's the easiest way to get the game. Download a Windows version of NSIS (available here). Open a terminal window. Copy & Paste this: /Applications/NSIS/nsis.exe -URL "" -FORCE -norestore -DOS (Replace "" with the link you were given by zenvids.) While the process is running, go about your normal business. Once the process has finished, go to the folder you just extracted. You should find a file called "GTAIV_Windows_200.zip.pck". Double-click it and your game should be there. That's it! You could also just copy & paste the following instead of step #3: /Applications/NSIS/nsis.exe -URL "" -FORCE -norestore If you would like to play this game right now, skip the download and just double-click the file in step #5 above. Q: Exact support Let S, V be a vector space and $Sf: V \rightarrow R^S$ is Sf is a function such that for all $Sx \in V$ there is a $Sa \in R^S$ for which $Sf(x) = a$. Then Sf is linear. My attempt Let $Su, v \in \mathbb{R}^3$
