Narendra Modi Prime Minister Narendra Modi said on Thursday that India's position in the world is "certainly improving" and that it would not need to spend money on foreign aid if it is strong. "We have always been a soft state, we have been standing by the side of others, we have donated to the world," Modi said in a speech at an event marking the 70th anniversary of the founding of the Indian Space Research Organisation. "We are also a soft state, we also need to strengthen ourselves, but when India is strong 1d6a3396d6

A: I use Musicbrainz Picard. UNH Corp. v. Banco Espanol de Credito UNH Corp. v. Banco Espanol de Credito, 994 F.2d 908 (1st Cir. 1993), is a U.S. copyright case that was appealed to the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. The case involved the question of whether the traditional American copyright analysis could be applied to Spanish copyright law. Facts UNH Corporation is the parent company of UNH Broadcast Systems, Inc., which owns the radio station, WUNH. WUNH was broadcasting advertisements that were running about 15 seconds long, repeating over and over again. Banco Espanol de Credito, an authorized bank in Puerto Rico, had made a loan to a WUNH customer. Banco Espanol de Credito had loaned money to the customer for the purpose of purchasing radio equipment, as a result of which they had rights to use the equipment for a period of one year. Banco Espanol de Credito had paid for the equipment in advance, and then loaned the money to the customer, which was the actual purchaser. However, Banco Espanol de Credito had a loan agreement with WUNH, under which WUNH would pay Banco Espanol de Credito for the time that it used the radio station. Banco Espanol de Credito realized that WUNH had the equipment, and began sending warning letters. When WUNH did not respond, Banco Espanol de Credito sent a demand letter, requesting payment of $85,700 for using the equipment. UNH Corporation filed suit in the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico, arguing that they were the owner of the copyright, and that Banco Espanol de Credito had violated that copyright by using the equipment without permission. Lower court The district court granted Banco Espanol de Credito's motion for summary judgment. UNH argued that the law of the United States could be applied to determine the rights of the parties. UNH cited Barnette v. Broder,, in support of their argument. Holding The First Circuit affirmed the lower court's summary judgment for Banco Espanol de Credito. The First Circuit held that, even though the equipment belonged to WUNH, because
