Dodecapong Screensaver by smartdev.com Screenshots: Screenshot 1 Screenshot 2 Screenshot 3 Screenshot 4 Dodecapong Screensaver by smartdev.com Downloads: OS: Windows Vista/XP/2000/98 Size: 25.4 MB A: I don't like it, since I want to change the settings for my screensaver, not just view the settings and let them auto-adjust the screensaver. I expect to be able to specify the mode, camera angle, camera angle/movement, start position and such. From the screenshot, it does not look like that is possible. How about the zip file at The only mention of "5 presets" here is in the description, so I'm not sure that means you get five presets, or what they are. Anyway, the zip file contains a self-extracting exe file, but I see no installer. I imagine any possible installation would be along the lines of "download to Program Files and take a screen shot", but I don't know if that is possible. Also, it appears to be a DLL to run the screensaver? Can I make it a shortcut to my desktop and call that dll? If not, why not
