I had way too much editing work on Goro and I was holding back my own project because I couldn't write a post on Goro without giving away some spoilers and I didn't feel like doing that. So bear with me! I have to be creative here to make it work. Hope you like the Concept Art of Kamiya's Kuroshitsuji. I liked the sketches better! I did all the texturing and lighting too. Like I said, it was hard to work on this blog without spoiling something, but I tried my best and I hope you don't mind! On a side note, Kuroshitsuji's story is something that you really have to read for yourself. It's really a great story, and it's a few years old now. I've only read the first book and only watched the anime until it was finished. After that, I can't help but get excited to see what the sequel and the manga will bring. Ranveer Singh's duffle coat is one of the best-dressed items in the past few years. From the way it is worn - cut into a ruffle type - to how it can be dressed up with stitched embellished shirts and the classic trouser combo, the duffle coat is a versatile wardrobe essential. We love this sleek duffle coat by Mango that boasts of the best quality fabrics and craftsmanship. Made in Italy, this duffle has a structured fit and carry. The jacket's leather is raised to give it a polished look and feel. What makes this duffle coat so unique is the duffle in the rear portion of the jacket. The duffle is completely visible and no part of it can be missed. The lining is in leather which makes it extra soft and not heavy. Check out the pictures below which show a duffle coat in two ways: one draped for the casual man and one put together with a shirt and jeans for the dapper one! Well, what say? What do you like best about the duffle coat? Let us know in the comments section. Like this: Like Loading...Q:
